MEET ME

Choosing a photographer can be a daunting task. You want to find someone that can capture your family the way you are. Photography is not just a job to me, its my life. I live and breathe it. Its a part of who I am, and each image that I produce is a little piece of my soul hand delivered to your family. I hope you love my work and that you give me the opportunity to work with your family.

THAT TO EXPECT

1.Pre session Email Consultation.

- 2. On location Custom Photography Session.
- 3. Private online gallery of images to share and from which to purchase.
  - 4. Hand editing of each purchased photo.

A retainer of $100 is required when you book. This retainer secures your date and is applied towards your preferred session. While this retainer is non-refundable, it can be transferred once if a reschedule is needed. The remainder of your session fee is due by the day of the session. I also offer a discount for military, first responders, and teachers.

THAT TO THEAR

Good choices in your outfit are the key element to great photos. The most important thing is that clothing should be simple and timeless.

Coordinate & Compliment

Try to coordinate without matching exactly. Start with a basic color palette and go from there. Use a couple colors in the first outfit and then add neutral colors and add a few color pops to coordinate between the subjects. Most of all wear clothes you feel comfortable in. For newborns try to keep things simple. Choose solid onesies, knitted hats, extra blankets for variety.

Accesorize

Add colors and interest and try to think outside the box. Scarves, bows, flowers in the hair, jewelry - all these things can add that extra punch to your outfit. Be careful though as not to over accesorize.

Personality first.

Add Layers & Textures

Think layers, patterns and textures as they add a visual interest to your photos. Mix light weight materials with some tweed, lace ruffles etc. Follow your vision and style.

AVOID LOGOS, BOLD PATTERNS AND CHARACTER WEAR.

Once we have confirmed your session date and time with me we will discuss locations, the look and the feel you would like in your portraits.

I want you to feel at ease during the session.

Real smiles and real emotions are what makes the photos perfect.

So let me capture the real you!

Your maternity session is a great way document all those amazing changes your body goes through when growing a new life. You may not feel amazing, but the images captured will be a beautiful memory of this time of your life.
